*Please Note:

- 1. Cut-off time is the latest time that Deutsche Bank requires to receive the instructions from clients in order to effect payment on the requested date. However, Deutsche Bank cannot guarantee the good value at the client's receiving bank as it will depend on receiving bank's time zone as well as the receiving bank's internal cut-off time.
- 2. Outward remittance is subject to local foreign exchange regulations. All underlying documents must be submitted before value date.
- 3. For BAHTNET and SMART payment, the beneficiary bank may consider the account number of beneficiary appeared on the Application as most significant and transfer funds to such account number without having to verify the name of beneficiary.
- 4. For BAHTNET payment, the remitters are requested to notify Deutsche Bank 1 business day in advance for transfer amount exceeding THB100 million.
